SCOTT'S RIDE

Scott Pfeiffer, diagnosed with ALS in May of 2007, won't let ALS get him down. Scott has done it all; from managing a race team, to coming up with many different adventures to raise awareness and funds for ALS. His next adventure: Going from the February 22nd NASCAR race in Fontana, CA to the next race in Vegas on March 1st. Scott will travel all 150 miles from Baker, CA to Las Vegas, NV by way of his wheelchair.

Starting Line – Baker, CA (Feb 23rd)

Finish Line – Hard Rock Hotel, Las Vegas, NV (Feb 27th)

Reception to follow with food and cash bar.
For more details contact Scott at 920-226-0996

"I will never be able to teach my son how to throw a ball, teach my daughter how to drive a car, or walk my daughter down the aisle, but I can teach both of them that they can accomplish anything that they put their mind to. Please support me on my ride from Baker to Vegas. "

Scott Pfeiffer

All proceeds from this event will help lead the fight to find a cure and treat ALS through research and help provide support and compassion for families affected by Lou Gehrig's Disease.
